

March for Freedom 3 Washington

Join us for a celebration of freedom and independence.

Let's unite to restore our friendly neighborhoods, businesses and schools. We're inviting all Washingtonians from all backgrounds and all over the state to join us for a peaceful march and demonstration in Seattle to bring attention to this issue that affects us all.

Saturday
July 3, 2021
11:00 am to 4:30 pm
March starts at 2:00
5th Avenue N & Mercer Street
near Seattle Center

Bring your picnic lunch and join us on the plaza starting at 11:00 to celebrate Independence Day weekend and connect with others. Free speech open mike will start around noon (sign up ahead if possible.) The opening presentation and march will start at 2:00 pm. We'll walk down Mercer Street to Fairview, about 1/2 mile each way. We'll have signs, banners, and flyers to spread our message and encourage others to join us.

We stand together to:

- Affirm the rights of the individual to choose whether to cover his or her face while shopping, working, walking, or attending school.
- Support the rights of business to operate free from arbitrary regulation and enforcement.
- Protect medical freedom and privacy.

Organized by the Seattle Truth Network with other citizens' groups in King, Snohomish, and Pierce Counties. More info, resources, and highlights from the previous marches at:

All are welcome to bring signs and flyers supporting the message. Flags are welcome.

Masks are optional. This is a peaceful, family friendly demonstration.

No display of weapons or hateful messages allowed. No political signs please.
